

Consumer Attorneys of California (CAOC)

Part I: Organization Profile

Finances

Lobbying Payments (Cal-Access)

- 2023
 - $1,515,229.09 → $1.5 million (M)
- 2024
 - $1,496,657.57 → $1.4M
- 2025
 - $1,510,782.99 → $1.5M
- 2026 (on-going)
 - $1,025,951.93 → $1.03M

Total Annual Revenue (ProPublica)

- 2024: $5.6M
- 2023: $5.1M

General Positions (CAOC.org)

- Economic
 - No persons should be exploited at the cost of riches
 - Ensure financial compensation of harmed party
 - Advocate for financial protection from corporations for unexpected and emergency situations
- Social
 - Secure and progress on civil rights
 - Prevent discrimination in workplaces or fields
 - Upholding accountability of the liable parties

- Advocates awareness of defective products
- Access to attorney representation or court system
- Consumer privacy
- Environmental
 - Supports a clean and nondisruptive environment
 - Persons access to healthy surroundings

Constituents (CAOC.org)

- 3,762 member attorneys (as of September 2026)
- Beneficiaries: 39M of Californians
- Internal Divisions
 - Amicus Curiae Committee
 - Advocate justice in legislature or in courts
 - Diversity Equity & Inclusion Committee
 - Foster diverse groups and support via inclusion and acceptance
 - Law School Outreach Committee
 - Support law students in their career journey
 - Legal Staff Support Group
 - New Lawyer's Division
 - Trial lawyers with less than 10 years of experience
 - Provide public services regarding civil justice
 - Women's Caucus
 - Encourage women leadership within CAOC
- Affiliate Organizations (National and Local Trial Lawyer Associations): (Lawyer Legion)
 - Alameda-Contra Costa Trial Lawyers Association (ACCTLA)
 - Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles (CAALA)
 - Consumer Attorneys of Inland Empire (CAOIE)
 - Consumer Attorneys of San Diego (CASD)
 - Capitol City Trial Lawyers Association (CCTLA)
 - Central Coast Trial Lawyers Association (SLOBAR)
 - Central Valley Trial Lawyers Association (CVTLA)
 - Marin Trial Lawyers Association (MTLA)
 - Orange County Trial Lawyers Association (OCTLA)

- Santa Clara County Trial Lawyers Association
- San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association (SFTLA)
- San Joaquin County Trial Lawyers Association (SJCTLA)
- San Mateo County Trial Lawyers Association (SMCTLA)
- Ventura County Trial Lawyers Association (VCTLA)
- Constituents prevalent in urban areas

Part II: Constituent Profile — Member Attorneys

Economics

- Target Industries
 - Insurance
 - Product Liability
 - Corporate Employers & Labor
 - Big Tech & E-Commerce
 - Energy & Environment
- FY2024 Form 990:
 - Executive Compensation: $667,088
 - 11.7% of Total Expenses
 - Other Salaries and Wages: $1,785,254
 - 31.3% of Total Expenses

Demographics (CAOC.org)

- 3,762 member attorneys (as of September 2026)
- 2026 CAOC Board (on available profile)
 - 15 officers
 - 47% Male
 - 53% Female
 - 115 Board of Directors
 - 11 Directors Emeritus
 - 40 Past Presidents Council
- 2026 CAOC Staff
 - 19 staff
 - 1% Male
 - 99% Female
- Attorney offices predominantly reside in Sacramento, Bay Area, and LA counties

Note: Due to CAOC being a professional, private trade association, there is no publicly extensive list of demographic profile

Politics

- 2026 Political Endorsements (State Assembly): (CAOC.org)
 - 100% of the listed endorsers were Democrat Party

Note: Due to CAOC being a professional, private trade association, there is no publicly extensive list of partisan voter profile

- 3 Important Issues
 - Protecting individuals from harm caused by corporation misconduct
 - Advocacy and representation for citizen justice and fair trial
 - Forwarding political efforts to ensure safe and ethical practices are in place

Note: Regarding cases with its beneficiaries, CAOC generally takes on cases that have been accepted for review via California Supreme Court

No specific statements made by individual constituents on general positions. However, by working for CAOC as a member attorney, positions should be parallel or in likeness with CAOC's general statements on economic, social, and environmental issues